Vanuatu Post joins TC

Vanuatu Post has joined the Telematics Cooperative in April 2010 to become the 128th member of the Cooperative.

Membership of the Telematics Cooperative has many benefits for members, including the following:

-  . Participation as a full member of the Telematics Cooperative of the UPU;
-  . Ability to join any or all of the User Groups established within the Cooperative;
-  . Ability to vote on the decisions or resolutions taken by the Cooperative on the basis of the number of votes to which the member is entitled;
-  . Ability to submit candidates to stand for positions on the Cooperative's Management Board or on its User Groups' Management Committees;
-  . Specific benefits or discounts offered on telematics products and services;
-  . Priority support for the deployment of applications, products and services; and
-  . Regular updates in the form of newsletters and information bulletins.
